

MARKET REPORT

Public Involvement in Hotel Financing

NOVEMBER 2, 2004

The author discusses trends in the public support of hospitality projects, which is becoming increasingly common as municipalities seek to improve their competitive position in the convention and conference center business.